OUR COLLEGE CREST

The symbolism of our College Crest is very meaningful. The motto “உழைப்பே உயர்வு” is quintessence of the epic life of Late Thiru. Pioneer Kumaraswamy in whose sacred memory, this College has been established. The joy of growth has two aspects

(1) Ceaseless effort for improvement and (2) Divine Grace. The core of wisdom consists in doing our best to deserve Divine Grace. Thus wisdom is the basis for life in this College as expressed in this motto which is embedded in our College Crest.

Goddess Saraswathi inspires scholars here with the light of wisdom. She presides over all activities related to art and culture. Her Divine presence is felt in all activities of the college.

The Lighted Lamp is the symbol of the perception of knowledge through the senses. The sublimation of the senses leading to knowledge is symbolised by the flame. The flame burns steadily, indicating that a controlled application of the senses intensifies their keenness and power.

The Arrow in the bow indicates the mental concentration implicit in all kinds of successful efforts particularly, in the acquisition of knowledge.

The Temple tower is the symbol of our rich heritage and ancient culture which aims at reaching the heights of human dignity and power. Our College strives to impart that culture to the students.

The Swan symbolises the repose of the infinite as distinguished from the restlessness of the individual. The ocean is reposeful while the wave is restless. To the extent possible, the individual student's share is induced to the fuller energy of the infinite. He / She will share the repose of the Divine Infinite.

In the evolution of every individual student of this college towards the above goals symbolised by our College Crest lies in the fulfillment of the message of this unique institution.

LIFE SKETCH OF LATE THIRU PIONEER KUMARASWAMY

On 12th October 1897, Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy was born to Thiru. Sastha and Tmt. Sivakamy at Vadasery. He hailed from a simple, traditional and conservative family. With minimum formal education, he started his career as a weaver, shop assistant and an automobile driver.

His traits like readiness for new experience, imperative responsibility, concrete knowledge about the results of his action, risk taking attitude, strategic planning and organizational abilities made him a person of entrepreneurial skills and carved him as a "Self Made Man".

Although, his social background was not much conducive, his continual innovative activity fetched him the title “PIONEER”. With the support of his two brothers Thiru. Nellaippan and Thiru. Nagamoni, he indulged almost in all activities in a new and better way and emerged as a ‘Modern Man’.

Industrialization - a new phenomenon to the region, was introduced by him. He initiated many services like bus service, Out-agency for Railways, cultivation of Commercial crops, Commercial Electricity supply, Charcoal Gas production, Technical Training for Students and a Spinning Mill. These services provided an alternative to agricultural labourers and weavers and helped to standardize their livelihood. Although he had no precedent for all ventures in his family, “The Achievement motive” had always been the driving force for all his modern enterprises.

Earlier Bus service to Trivandrum was named as “Champion Motor Service”, and later it was named as ‘Pioneer’. This service was extended to Tirunelveli and Cape Comorin. This profitable service made the Travancore Government to nationalize the transportation.

He was a man with a high urge for achievement. He always looked for a challenge, responded to it and became successful. And thus nationalization of the transport made him to look out for a new venture.

He got Tirunelveli – Nagercoil Express bus route and the out-agency for Southern Railways. As there was no railway service in this region, this out-agency was much helpful for quick and safe transporting of goods.

Cultivation of commercial crops was also introduced by Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy and his brothers. This successful experiment was undertaken in their estate located at Thadikkarankonam, 12 miles away from Nagercoil. At first, tapioca and plantains were planted. It was said that rubber trees would not be profitable in this region. Yet

Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy again preferred to take risk and planted rubber trees. As he expected, a great demand for rubber occurred after the Second World War. As the latex from this estate proved to be of high quality, it earned them a good reputation and profit. Palkulam Estates Ltd. was established to supervise all these estates.

He started Nagercoil Electric Supply Corporation in 1934. The Travancore state Government issued him license for Power Supply for 55 years. Although, he found it difficult to get permission from the Municipal Chairman to install Nagercoil street lights, he succeeded in his attempt later. In 1956, it was also nationalized but compensation was given.

Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy was a man of planning for years ahead. The establishment of the Pioneer Charcoal Gas Producer Works in 1942 in Madras was an example. Earlier, small gas generators were produced in the Pioneer workshop at Nagercoil. When shortage of petrol occurred during the Second World War, these gas generators, fitted at the back of a vehicle, helped the people all over the state. This innovative service was duly recognized and the Director of Industries of Madras State issued a Certificate of Honour to him. During the occasion of laying the foundation stone for Pioneer Kumaraswamy College in 1970, this innovation was quoted by the Chief Guest of the function, the then President of India, Thiru. V. V. Giri.

Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy collaborated with the government in giving technical training to the students during the Second World War. It was named as "War Technical Scheme". Several buildings were constructed and students got stipend from the government. After the war, the buildings were used as the Technical Training Centre under the government, and the government paid the salary and stipend to the staff and students. Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy was the Principal of the centre during the period 1942 – 1950. The Pioneer Kumaraswamy College, founded in 1967 was initially housed at in these buildings.

After obtaining heavy industry license from the government. Thiru. S. Kumaraswamy imported machineries from Toyota, Japan and in 1958 he established a Cotton spinning mill, the first of its kind in the Kanyakumari District, in the name of his beloved wife Tmt. Nagammal. The Mill gave employment opportunities to the natives of the town.

His death on the 18th of October 1960 came as a great shock not only to his family but to the people of the entire southern region.

By dint of hardwork, he had become the first and the foremost industrialist of this region. The greatness of his peerless life is the result of his supreme sense of duty, integrity and hardwork which moulded him as one of the Business Magnates of South India.

PORTRAIT OF Dr. K. PADMANABHAN'S LIFE

Dr. K. Padmanabhan was born to Tmt. Kuzhalamony and Thiru. Kesavaperumal on 22nd March 1927. After completing his Secondary School education at S.M.R.V.High School, he joined Scott Christian College to pursue the intermediate course. His graduation in the subject of Zoology at H. H. Maharaja's College, Thiruvananthapuram was the stepping-stone towards his aspiration of "Becoming a Medical Graduate" and he achieved his goal at Stanley Medical College, Madras in 1953 and got appointed as Assistant Medical Officer at Catherine Booth Hospital, Nagercoil.

His marriage to Tmt. N. Bagavathy Ammal, daughter of Thiru Pioneer S. Kumaraswamy, the great industrialist of the District, in 1948 became a driving force and carved him as a multi-faceted personality.

In 1960 he undertook the Management of Nagammal Mills Ltd., with his wife Tmt. N. Bagavathy Ammal as its Managing Director. Establishing Kumar Medical Centre at Nagercoil in 1962 and obtaining the dealership of IOC in 1964 elevated his elegance. He widened his outlook in uplifting the downtrodden people through his social and academic endeavors.

As the Founder President of the Lions Club of Nagercoil he proved himself to be a modest humanitarian towards the needy people. His quest for imparting knowledge through Higher Education ignited him to focus on academic activities also. He served the society as the Founder Member of Lekshmipuram College of Arts and Science at Neyyoor in 1964, Founder President of Vivekananda College at Agastheeswaram and Correspondent of Sri Devi Kumari Women's College at Kuzhithurai (1966-1969).

As the alumnus of S.M.R.V High School, Vadasery, Nagercoil, he served as its Manager for the period of 1964-1978. His accomplishments in academics were duly recognized by Madurai Kamaraj University and he was elected to the prestigious Membership of the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council of the University. He adorned these offices during 1960s and 1970s and played a pivotal role in the effective functioning of the University. He represented the University at the Medical Council of India also.

His concerted academic efforts and dedication, culminated in establishing a secular and non-commercial Higher Educational Institution in the name of the prodigious personality Thiru. Pioneer Kumaraswamy.

As the Founders of this reputed institution Dr. K. Padmanabhan and Tmt. N. Bagavathy Ammal, had striven much in achieving the vision of Enriching and Empowering the students with Values. Procurement of high rate of results in 1975 and 1976 earned the Rolling cup and reputation from the Government of Tamilnadu.

He widened his missionary zeal when the Government in 1966 appointed him as the President of Kanyakumari Devasom Board. As the Area Commander of Home Guards in Kanyakumari District (1966-1969) he set himself as a Role Model for the Younger generation.

His perspicacious vision kept the Nagammal Mills to sustain and flourish even during the period of economic recession and stagnation.

His sudden death in May 2006 did not fade away his virtues like disciplined work culture, humanity, secular outlook and determination. His modest, simple, and courteous attitude are the imprints that are successfully followed by his noble successor Thiru P. Kumaraswamy.

Thiru P. Kumaraswamy, the Chairman and Managing Director, Nagammal Mills (P) Ltd., and Educational Agency which established the college now is on the reign of leadership. Thiru P. Kumaraswamy, the President of Pioneer Kumaraswamy College Committee and Tmt. Latha Kumaraswamy, Member of the Committee are striving to fulfill the aspirations of Dr. K. Padmanabhan and Tmt. N. Bagavathy Ammal.

Perseverance and sustained efforts always help to reach pinnacles. Fostering and rearing his farsighted thoughts into reality is the best tribute to our Founder.
